

SOFTWARE LICENSE AGREEMENT (EULA)

Effective Date: 6 August 2026

This End User License Agreement ("Agreement" or "EULA") is a legally binding agreement between you ("User", "Customer", "Licensee") and:

SafetyNet Americas Ltd

Company Number: 17366592

20 Wenlock Road

London N1 7GU

England

This Agreement governs the installation, download, access and use of all software, digital applications, Excel tools, databases, templates, calculators, downloadable documents, scripts and other licensed digital products ("Software") supplied by SafetyNet Americas Ltd.

By downloading, installing, accessing or using the Software, you agree to be bound by this Agreement.

1. Grant of License

Subject to compliance with this Agreement and payment of all applicable fees, SafetyNet grants the Licensee a limited, personal, non-exclusive, non-transferable and revocable licence to use the Software for the Licensee's own internal business or personal purposes.

No ownership rights are transferred.

2. Ownership

The Software is licensed, not sold.

All intellectual property rights, including copyrights, trademarks, database rights, trade secrets, patents, designs and other proprietary rights, remain the exclusive property of SafetyNet Americas Ltd or its licensors.

3. Scope of Licence

Unless expressly stated otherwise in writing, the licence permits:

- installation by the purchasing Licensee;

- use on devices owned or controlled by the Licensee;
- reasonable backup copies for disaster recovery;
- internal business use;
- personal educational use.

Any other use requires prior written permission.

4. Prohibited Uses

The Licensee shall not:

- copy the Software except where expressly permitted;
- distribute or redistribute the Software;
- resell, sublicense or lease the Software;
- lend or rent the Software;
- upload the Software to public or private file-sharing platforms;
- provide access to unauthorised users;
- remove copyright notices or proprietary markings;
- circumvent licence controls;
- bypass technical protection measures;
- reverse engineer, decompile or disassemble the Software except where mandatory law expressly permits;
- modify the Software to create competing products;
- use the Software to provide commercial services to third parties without written authorisation.

5. Artificial Intelligence Restrictions

Without the prior written consent of SafetyNet, the Licensee shall not use the Software or any part of its content to:

- train artificial intelligence systems;
- develop machine learning models;
- create datasets;
- generate competing AI applications;
- perform automated knowledge extraction;
- create derivative AI-generated databases.

6. Databases

Where the Software contains databases, the database structure, organisation, compilation and contents are protected by applicable copyright and database rights.

Extraction or reuse of substantial parts of any database is prohibited.

7. Excel Tools and Templates

Excel workbooks, templates, calculators and similar tools are licensed solely for the authorised Licensee.

The Licensee may customise these tools for internal use but may not distribute, publish or sell modified or unmodified versions without prior written consent.

8. Updates

SafetyNet may, at its discretion, provide updates, corrections, bug fixes or enhancements.

Unless otherwise agreed, SafetyNet is under no obligation to provide updates or support.

9. Compatibility

The Licensee is responsible for ensuring that the Software is compatible with their own hardware, operating systems and software environment.

SafetyNet does not warrant compatibility with every platform or future software release.

10. Technical Support

Unless included in the purchased product or subscription, technical support is not included.

Support services, where offered, are governed by separate terms.

11. Open Source Components

Certain Software may include third-party or open-source components.

Such components remain subject to their respective licence terms.

Nothing in this Agreement limits any rights granted under applicable open-source licences.

12. Regulatory Information

Certain Software may contain references to legislation, standards or guidance relating to hazardous materials, occupational safety, environmental protection or regulatory compliance.

Such information is provided for educational and operational support only.

The Licensee remains responsible for verifying compliance with the latest official legislation applicable in the relevant jurisdiction.

13. Disclaimer of Professional Advice

The Software does not constitute legal, engineering, environmental, medical or governmental advice.

Users remain responsible for obtaining appropriate professional advice where necessary.

14. Disclaimer of Warranties

To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Software is provided "as is" and "as available".

SafetyNet disclaims all warranties, whether express or implied, including warranties of:

- merchantability;
- fitness for a particular purpose;
- uninterrupted operation;
- error-free performance;
- compatibility;
- non-infringement.

15. Limitation of Liability

To the fullest extent permitted by law, SafetyNet shall not be liable for any indirect, incidental, consequential, exemplary or punitive damages arising from the use of, or inability to use, the Software.

The total aggregate liability of SafetyNet shall not exceed the amount paid for the specific Software licence giving rise to the claim during the twelve (12) months immediately preceding the event giving rise to liability.

Nothing in this Agreement excludes liability that cannot lawfully be excluded.

16. Data Protection

Where the Software processes personal information, such processing shall be governed by the SafetyNet Privacy Policy.

The Licensee remains responsible for complying with applicable data protection laws when using the Software.

17. Audit Rights

Where SafetyNet reasonably suspects a material breach of this Agreement, it may request reasonable evidence of licence compliance.

The Licensee agrees to cooperate in good faith with such requests.

18. Suspension and Termination

SafetyNet may suspend or terminate the licence immediately if the Licensee:

- breaches this Agreement;
- infringes intellectual property rights;
- uses the Software unlawfully;
- distributes unauthorised copies;
- attempts to circumvent licence restrictions.

Upon termination, the Licensee shall immediately cease using the Software and permanently delete all copies under its control, except where retention is required by law.

19. Export Compliance

The Licensee shall comply with all applicable export control, sanctions and trade regulations.

SafetyNet may refuse or terminate licences where export restrictions or sanctions prohibit the supply or use of the Software.

20. Assignment

The Licensee may not assign, transfer or sublicense this Agreement or any rights granted under it without the prior written consent of SafetyNet.

SafetyNet may assign this Agreement in connection with a merger, acquisition or sale of its business.

21. Entire Agreement

This Agreement forms part of the contractual relationship between the Licensee and SafetyNet and shall be read together with the:

- Website Terms of Use;
- Terms & Conditions of Sale;
- Acceptable Use Policy;

- Privacy Policy;
- Limitation of Liability and Indemnification Policy;
- Force Majeure Policy;
- Training & Regulatory Disclaimer.

Where a conflict exists, the document that specifically governs the Software licence will prevail in relation to licensing matters.

22. Severability

If any provision of this Agreement is found to be invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect.

23. Governing Law

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England and Wales.

24. Jurisdiction

Subject to any mandatory consumer protection laws applicable in the Licensee's country of residence, the courts of England and Wales shall have exclusive jurisdiction over disputes arising out of or relating to this Agreement.

25. Contact

Questions regarding this Software License Agreement may be submitted using the contact details published on the SafetyNet website.
